This version of the Bible, Today's English Version (TEV) or the Good News Translation, has got to be the simplest & most easy to read for just about everyone. During the last two decades rather than read to my children other translations/versions containing thees & thous & shalts which would seem alien & distant to them, I raised my children hearing God's Word in Today's English.

Good News Bible has always been my favorite because of it's excellent reading and easy to understand print. I've studied it for years and compared the contents to other bibles and am never disappointed in that all the bibles, including Good News, may use different words in their verses, or turn the words around, but the thought remains the same.
