Within the heart is a subtler center that experiences spirit, but you can't feel spirit as an emotion or physical sensation. Spirit lies beneath the layers of sensations, and to experience it, you must go to the heart and meditate upon it until everything that obscures spirit is cleansed.

The So Ham meditation is a Heart meditation that focuses primarily on the front of your body. When you meet people you (energetically) connect through the front of your body, especially through your chest area (heart chakra). When you feel alone and not so connected to others, you have a closed heart, but also your chest is tense and shielded.
