In my book The Catholic Perspective on Paul I demonstrate that the word's of Christ to Paul on the road to Damascus "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute ME?" is the foundation of Saint Paul's theology and the basis of every single Catholic doctrine on the books. When Paul persecuted members of the Church, he was persecuting Christ. This reveals that every single Christian participates in the Person of Christ.

The Catholic Church permits a range of views on the subject of predestination, but there are certain points on which it is firm. The New Testament teaches that predestination is real. St. Paul says, "those whom [God] foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the first-born among many brethren. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified" (Rom
