Amazon.com: Customer reviews: When Crickets Cry

As with each of his books, When Crickets Cry, has such a genuine and enchanting group of characters that at the end of the story I hated to see go. A young boy falls in love with the girl next door, who, as it turns out, is also his soulmate. When she is still a young girl her doctors find that she has a serious hea

When Crickets Cry Chapters 31-41 Summary & Analysis

Blindness is a symbol that appears in When Crickets Cry. Emma's brother, Charlie, is blind, and Helen Keller is both referred to and quoted frequently. Blindness can represent ignorance, darkness, and error—or a refusal to see reality.
